

UNOPS in South Sudan

Supporting the transition to stability and growth in the world's newest country

Experience in South Sudan

“UNOPS is increasingly seen as the partner of choice in South Sudan for infrastructure development projects that need to be implemented efficiently and in difficult areas.”

Lise Grande

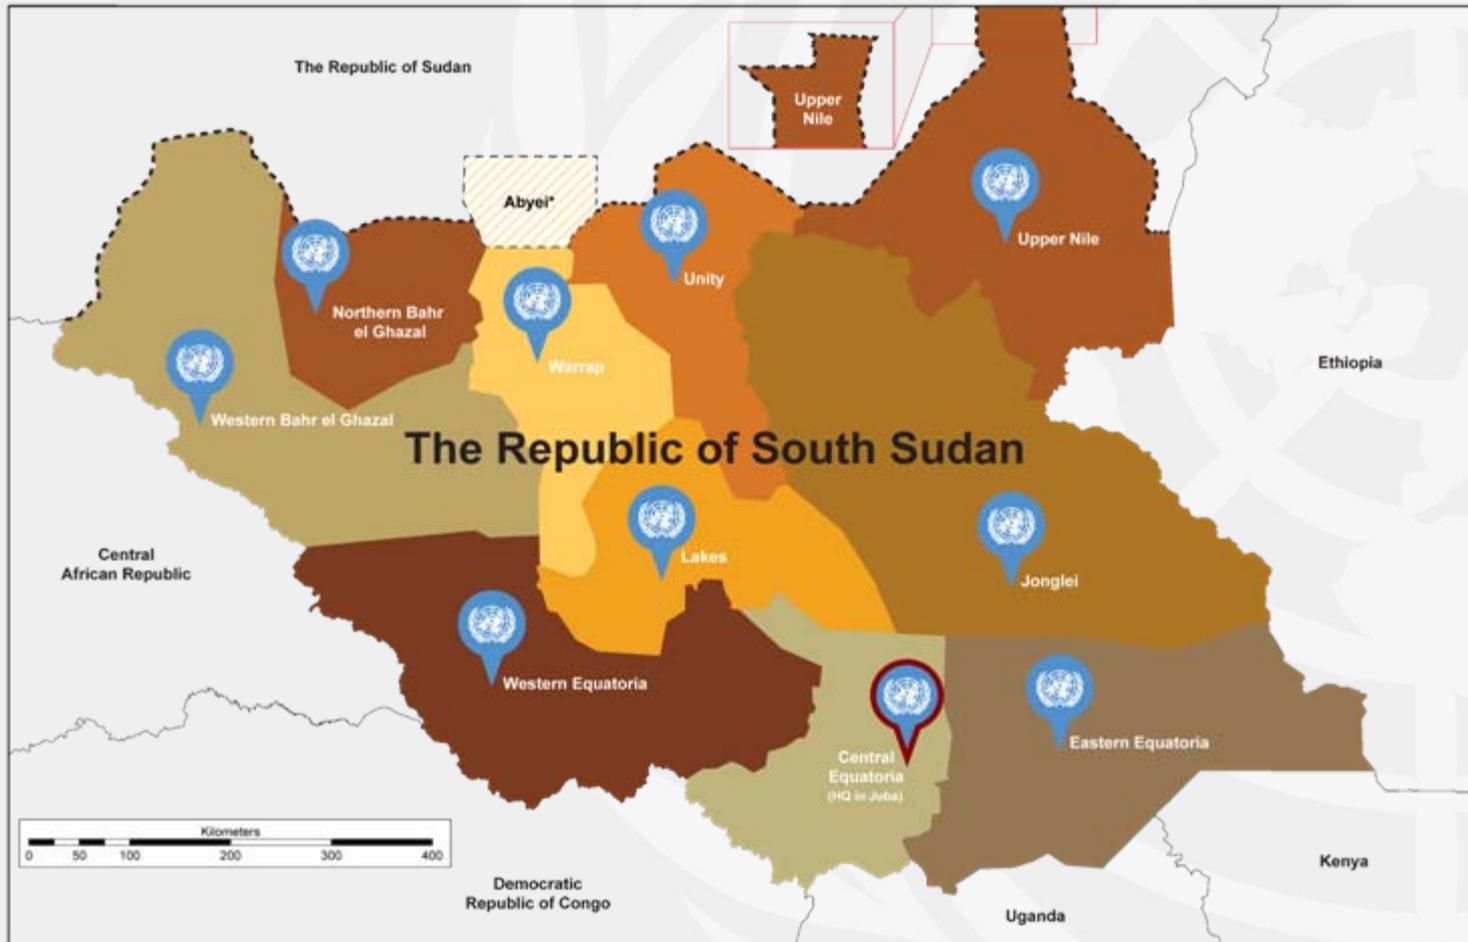

United Nations

Resident/Humanitarian Coordinator
in South Sudan

Experience in South Sudan

UNOPS is running more than 25 projects across all ten states of South Sudan

*Final status of the Abyei area is not yet determined.

Final boundary between the Republic of Sudan and the Republic of South Sudan has not yet been determined.

The boundaries and names on these maps do not imply official endorsement by the United Nations.

South Sudan, a unique setting

- 23 years of war
- World's newest Nation
- 11 Million People
- 200 ethnic groups

South Sudan's unique setting

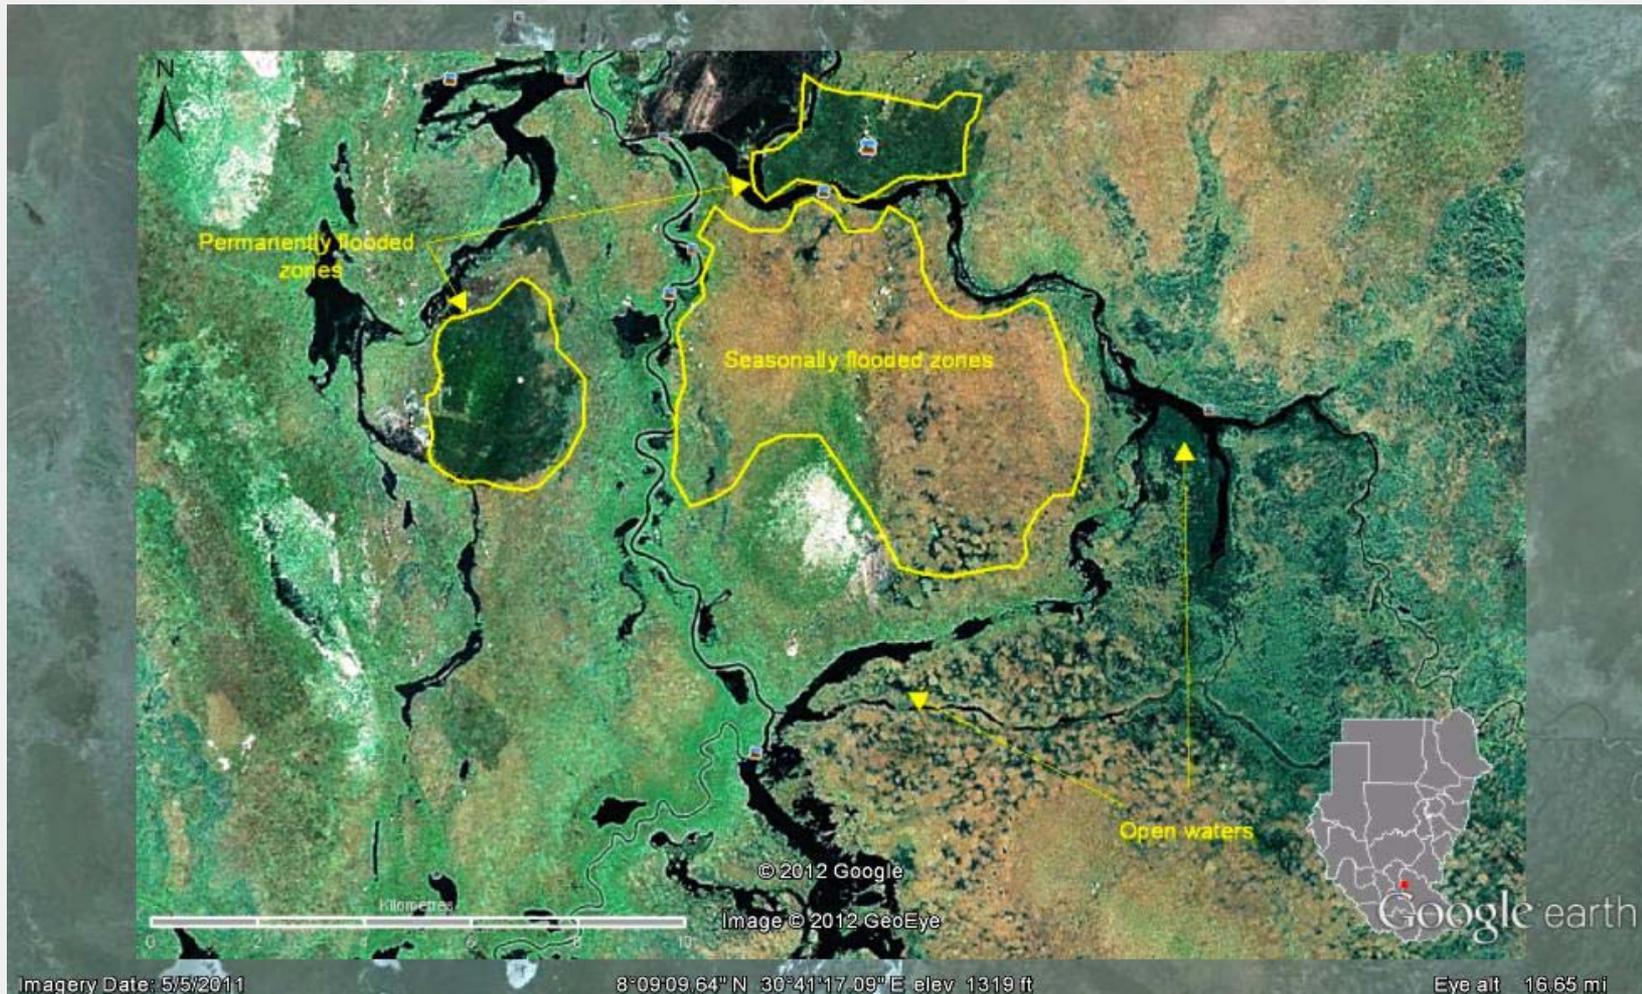

Some of the worst social indicators globally are found in South Sudan.

- 80 percent of the population < USD 1 per day.
- One third of the population is food insecure
- Access to health care < 40 percent of the population
- Under five child mortality: 20% by 2013.

Sud

The Sudd is one of the largest tropical wetlands in the world total area in excess of 30,000 square kilometers

Sud

the world's second-largest terrestrial wildlife migration of about 1.3 million white-eared kob, tiang and reedbuck antelopes and Mongalla gazelle

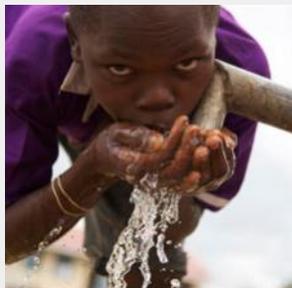

Operational excellence for results that matter

UNOPS in South Sudan

From emergency to development

UNOPS 2005-2007

-13million USD procurement for World Bank for census support (Vehicle, Generator, IT etc).

-UNICEF office set up (Malakal, Rumbek, etc)

-OCHA IT set up in Juba

UNOPS 2007-2010

Election support project
with UNDP in eight states

UNOPS 2010- now

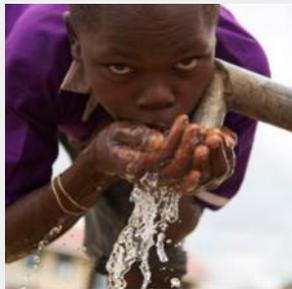

148 buildings, 480km road
are constructed/rehabilitated
in all ten states

Operational excellence for results that matter

Humanitarian Assistance

A Complex Crisis

A Complex Crisis

1. Inter-communal fighting in Jonglei State
2. Escalating clashes in northern border areas impacting over 300,000 people
3. Over 110,000 people displaced from the contested Abyei area
4. Food insecurity impacting 2.7 million people
5. At least 245,000 people affected by flooding

Maban Crisis

Maban Crisis

Maban Crisis

Maban Crisis

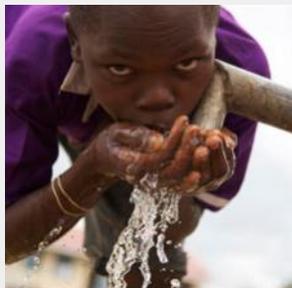

Maban Crisis

Sustainable Development in South Sudan

A Community Based Approach

Education project- school construction and community participation

Opportunities- Cicila

Cicila Icaya is 15 years old , a P4 student at the Lofi Primary School.

Cicila has a one-year old son. She was married at 13 when her father agreed to an offer of 14 cows.

She wakes up early, excited about attending the new school.

Cicila dreams of becoming a doctor.

Community is ready to take responsibility

Operational excellence for results that matter

Appreciation to :

1. The people and Government of the Republic of South Sudan
2. Partners and donors
3. The staff of UNOPS SSOC